NOMINATE TODAY!

Sharing our stories and celebrating our successes will ensure that economic development initiatives continue to grow. In 1995, the Cando Economic Developer of the Year Award was created to recognize and promote recent and long-standing Indigenous economic development initiatives throughout Canada.

Three outstanding examples of Indigenous economic development will be awarded at the upcoming Cando Annual National Conference & AGM in Enoch, AB.

For more information please visit www.edo.ca.

WE ENCOURAGE NOMINATIONS IN MORE THAN ONE CATEGORY. FOR EXAMPLE, YOU CAN NOMINATE A COMMUNITY, AND ALSO AN EDO WORKING IN THAT COMMUNITY (please use separate nomination forms for each nomination).

Please provide answers to the following questions in a form of an ATTACHMENT. Please note that complete submissions are extremely important since the Awards Committee will make their selections based solely on the information provided.

1. Write a brief profile on the Individual EDO, Community or Aboriginal Private Sector Business nominee. Check any 2 or 3 of the following statements that may apply and explain in a brief statement or point form the Indigenous economic development initiative.
